Case No. _____

(Prior dismissed San Diego Superior Court
Case No. GIC 864098)

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF CIVIL
ACTION TO THE UNITED STATES
DISTRICT COURT UNDER 28 U.S.C.
§§ 1441, 1446, 1332(a)

(DIVERSITY OF CITIZENSHIP JURISDICTION)

1 TO THE JUDGES OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN 2 DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA AND TO PETITIONER AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD,
3 SELTZER CAPLAN McMAHON VITEK, A LAW CORPORATION:

5 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT, based on the following allegations, Respondent DAMON
6 ABNOS hereby removes the state court action described below.

8 1. On January 8, 2008, an action was commenced in the Superior Court of the State of 9 California in and for the County of San Diego, entitled "SELTZER CAPLAN McMAHON VITEK, 10 a Law Corporation, Petitioner, vs. DAMON ABNOS, Respondent," (Case No. GIC 864098). The 11 action seeks Confirmation of Contractual Arbitration Award in the amount of $100,348.58,
12 exclusive of interest and costs. The petition seeks enforcement of an arbitration award made on 13 December 26, 2007. Petitioner has improperly filed the petition as a "pending action" under San
14 Diego Superior Court Case No. GIC 864098; however, San Diego Superior Court Case No. GIC
15 864098 was dismissed, including the entire action and all parties and all causes of action on June 7, 16 2007 (See Request for Dismissal, attached hereto as Exhibit "A"). Accordingly, the petition should 17 have been filed as a "new action," and is subject to removal.

19 2. On January 10, 2008, Respondent filed a Petition to Vacate Arbitration Award in the 20 United States District Court For the Southern District of California (Case No. 08 CV 0058 DMS
21 WMc). (See Respondent's Petition to Vacate Arbitration Award, attached hereto as Exhibit "B").
22

23 3. On January 8, 2008, proof of service was mailed to Respondent of Petitioner's Petition to 24 Confirm Contractual Arbitration Award. This Notice of Removal is made on his behalf.

26 4. A copy of the Petition to Confirm Contractual Arbitration Award is attached hereto as 27 Exhibit "C." Because the underlying case (GIC 864098) was dismissed and the Petitions to Confirm 28

1 and to Vacate the Arbitration Award comprise a new action, Respondent is informed and believes
2 that Exhibits "B" and "C" constitute all process, pleadings and orders received in this action.

4 5. This Notice of Removal is filed within 30 days from the date upon which Respondent
5 was served with the Petition to Confirm Contractual Arbitration Award and within the time
6 provided by law. 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).

8 6. The above-described action is a civil action over which this Court has original
9 jurisdiction under the provisions of Title 28, Section 1332 of the United States Code, and is one that 10 may be removed to this Court by Respondent, pursuant to Title 28, Section 1441 of the United 11 Stated Code, in that it is a civil action wherein the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of 12 $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and is between citizens of different states. Title 28, Section 13 1332 provides that "[t]he federal district courts have original jurisdiction of all civil actions in which 14 the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and 15 the action is between citizens of different states..." For the purposes of diversity and removal 16 jurisdiction, a corporation is deemed a citizen of any state by which it has been incorporated and of 17 the state where it has its principal place of business. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1).
18

19 Petitioner seeks Confirmation of a Contractual Arbitration Award in the amount of 20 $100,348.58, exclusive of interest and costs. Accordingly, the amount in controversy exceeds the 21 sum of $75,000 under Title 28, Section 1332 of the United States Code.

22 Petitioner, at the time this action was commenced, was and still is a corporation
23 incorporated under the laws of the State of California (California Corp. No. C0610791), with its 24 principal place of business in the State of California. The Secretary of State provides that the 25 appropriate jurisdiction for Petitioner is California, and lists a San Diego, California address for 26 Petitioner. Petitioner maintains a website at "www.scmv.com." This website states only one address 27 for Petitioner, in downtown San Diego, California. Hence, the location of its "operations" (where 28 the corporation performs the substantial predominance of its operations) and/or its "nerve center"

(where it performs its executive and administrative functions) are clearly in California. See Breitman v. May Co. California (1994) 37 F.3d 562, 564; citing Industrial Techtronics, Inc. V. Aero Alloy (9th Cir. 1990) 912 F.2d 1090, 1092.

Respondent, at the time this action was commenced, was and still is a citizen of the State of Missouri, domiciled and maintaining his residence in Missouri. Respondent is employed in Missouri, registers his car in Missouri, and pays taxes to the state of Missouri.

Accordingly, there is complete diversity between the parties and this civil action is one which may be removed to this Court by Respondent pursuant to the provisions of Title 28, Section 1441(a) of the United States Code.

7. Notice of this removal is being given to both Petitioner and to the Clerk of the Court of San Diego County Superior Court. True and correct copies of these notices are attached as Exhibits "D" and "E." Proof of service of the Notice to Adverse Party of Removal to Federal Court will be filed with this Court immediately after the Superior Court filing is accomplished. Exhibits "A", "B", "C", "D" and "E" attached constitute all process, pleadings, or orders served on or by Respondent in this action.

WHEREFORE, pursuant to the provisions of Title 28, Sections 1332(a), and 1441 of the United States Code, Respondent removes the above action from the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Diego to this Court.

JURISDICTION

Jurisdiction is based upon diversity of citizenship. The plaintiff is a citizen of the State of Missouri. The defendants, individual and corporate, are citizens of the State of California. Defendant Seltzer, Caplan, McMahon and Vitek is a law corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of California with its principal offices in the city of San Diego. The amount in controversy, without interest and costs, exceeds the sum or value specified by 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

STATEMENT OF THE CLAIM

Plaintiff and defendants participated in an American Arbitration Association binding arbitration regarding a dispute pertaining to attorney's fees and charges and attorney malpractice. Plaintiff seeks to vacate the arbitration award because there was evident partiality by the arbitrator, the arbitrator was guilty of misconduct in refusing to postpone the hearing or hear the evidence, or other misbehavior which violate the rights of the parties; and that the arbitrator exceeded her power.

STATEMENT OF RELIEF SOUGHT

Plaintiff seeks to have the entire award vacated and to have the matter arbitrated de novo or litigated in the District Court.

BACKGROUND

Damon Abnos retained Seltzer Caplan to represent him in his divorce. The main financial issue in the divorce concerned Damon's separate property and the ability to trace funds to prove the character of his separate property. Damon told his attorneys that he had all of his bank records and other documentation concerning many years of transactions in over 30 file boxes at his home in Peculiar, Missouri. Damon told Seltzer Caplan that he was on vacation in Hawaii for the few weeks and would return to Missouri to retrieve the boxes upon his return. The banking information contained in the boxes could not be obtained any longer due to the length of time which transpired from the dates of the transactions. The banks no longer had copies of any of the records.

While Damon was in Hawaii, his wife, without his knowledge or consent, instructed her

1 parents (who live in the area) to go to the home while Damon was away and remove all the 2 boxes. Over 30 boxes were removed from the property and were never returned. The 3 documents were destroyed.

4 Seltzer Caplan never brought a motion regarding the spoliation and caused Damon to 5 lose at least $500,000 in what would have been verifiable traced funds. Seltzer Caplan never 6 even took the wife's deposition to confirm the break-in and absconding with the boxes.

7 When they were fired by Damon, Seltzer Caplan asserted an invalid and wrongful 8 charging lien against $85,000.00 which was being held in the wife's attorney's (and later in 9 Damon's new attorney's trust account). The "lien" denied Damon access to his money for close 10 to one year.

11 Seltzer Caplan also billed Damon for at least two motions which had no effect on the 12 action other than to pad the bills. In fact, Seltzer Caplan's own final billing statement
13 unilaterally reduced the bill. According to Seltzer Caplan's final bill, which was dated 14 11/18/04, there was a write off in the amount of $59,779.04 which left a balance due in the 15 total amount of $16,417.27. It was not possible to determine which, if any of the contested
16 billings were addressed by Seltzer Caplan as part of the write off.

17 In any event, there is no subsequent bill from Seltzer Caplan.

18 Accordingly, the plaintiff claimed a credit of $28,423.41 against the stated balance due
19 of $16,417.27 for a refund in the amount of $12,006.14 plus simple interest at the rate of 10%
20 per annum from December 1, 2004 in the amount of $3,974.03 for a total amount due to the 21 plaintiff on the billings only in the sum of $15,980.17.

23 Discussion re: Excessive Fees

24 An issue of fee churning (padding) arises with regard to the motions for Management and 25 Control of the Business and Bi-furcation of the marital status as neither was especially helpful
26 or productive to Mr. Abnos.

27 In the case of the motion for management and control, the motion was brought at a time
28 when the parties were in settlement negotiations and following the wife's withdrawal of her

1 motion for support. The motion was, in fact, counterproductive to settlement. What apparently 2 precipitated the motion was the wife's instruction to the parties' management company to send
3 her one-half of the monthly share of income ($16,000) to the wife directly instead of to the 4 parties' joint checking account, which had previously been the practice. In taking this action, the 5 wife effectively eliminated her need for support to be paid by Mr. Abnos. The copious pleadings
6 that were required to bring and maintain the motion were apparently the result of a knee-jerk
7 rather than a well-considered reaction.

8 Also, one has to question why Seltzer Caplan decided to set the matter for hearing on the 9 regular motion calendar when it was obvious that the issues were extremely complex and would 10 require more than the standard ten (10) minutes allotted to each side for argument. Seltzer
11 Caplan had to have known that this would create, if nothing else, a calendaring problem that 12 would consume more attorney time in the future. It was entirely appropriate (and foreseeable)
13 that the wife's attorney would request that the matter be rescheduled for a long cause hearing.

14 This request should have been routinely honored. Instead, the request was declined;
15 resulting in ex parte and regular court appearances, needless correspondence and additional 16 preparation time. Seltzer Caplan even asked for a pre-read by the court (which was refused due 17 to the excessive length of the pleadings). All this occurred for the stated reason that Seltzer
18 Caplan did not have Mr. Abnos' permission to grant a continuance. Perhaps Seltzer Caplan
19 should have informed Mr. Abnos of the costs, fees, expenses and overall effectiveness/viability/
20 necessity for the actions taken.

21 Then, when the hearing went forward in April, it was postponed sua sponte by the Court
22 as a long cause matter to July. Ultimately, the motion was denied for lack of sufficient showing 23 of Mr. Abnos' history of management and control.

24 As for the motion to bifurcate the status, this is usually not necessary unless the client
25 needed to terminate the marriage while property settlement negotiations continue; which was 26 not the case here. There was simply no reason to incur the time, fees and costs relating to the 27 motion to bifurcate.

28 The following figures were derived by reviewing each billing statement from 12/15/03

1 to 8/12/04. The figures reflect the combined total of attorneys Hejmanowski's and Bassett's time
 2 and paralegal time billed respectively at $320, $175, and $130/hour. Filing fees and costs were
 3 not included since these were not clearly indicated on the statements as being connected to the 4 particular issue or motion. Also, fees for Attorney Papst de Leon were not included because her
 5 involvement appears to have been solely in regard to the custody and visitation issues.
 6 Additionally, consultation time for other firm attorneys whose involvement was not significant 7 to the above issues were not included.

8 (Note: The amount may be short due to a lack of reference to the subject matter after a certain
 9 point in the billing statements. Due to refusal to submit to any discovery, it was not possible to 10 establish the basis for any of the fees and costs charged which were not clearly referenced in the 11 written statements.)

12 The excessive fees and costs related to these two matters are:

13 Motion for Management and Control	$18,609.00
14 Opposition to Continue OSC to Long Cause Calendar	1,306.00
15 Motion to Bifurcate	2,166.00
16 Total:	$22,081.00

17 Discussion re: Wrongful Assertion of Lien

18 [The Conversion Claim]

19 As par for the course, Seltzer Caplan asserted a bogus, improper, unauthorized charging
 20 lien against Damon's money being held in the trust account of ex-wife's attorney. The merit-
 21 less lien stopped Damon from being able to access over $85,000 and forced Damon to use credit 22 cards at high interest to cover expenses and further caused him to suffer needless angst.

23 Seltzer Caplan's purported lien was invalid under CRPC 3-300 et seq., to wit:

24 Rule 3-300. Avoiding Interests Adverse to a Client A member shall not enter into 25 a business transaction with a client; or knowingly acquire an ownership, possessory, security, or 26 other pecuniary interest adverse to a client, unless each of the following requirements has been 27 satisfied:
 28

(A) The transaction or acquisition and its terms are fair and reasonable to the client and are fully disclosed and transmitted in writing to the client in a manner which should reasonably have been understood by the client; and

(B) The client is advised in writing that the client may seek the advice of an independent lawyer of the client's choice and is given a reasonable opportunity to seek that advice; and

(C) The client thereafter consents in writing to the terms of the transaction or the terms of the acquisition. (Emphasis added)

Seltzer Caplan's retainer agreement falls short of this requirement and there is no separate written memorandum or letter of any nature which would comply with the requirements of CRCP 3-300. There was simply no basis to support Seltzer Caplan's assertion of a lien and their wrongful assertion of the lien caused Mr. Abnos to sustain damages in the form of having to pay higher interest rates on credit cards and loss of use of $85,000.00 and interest thereon at the legal rate of 10% per annum. Additionally, an attorney's lien on client's recovery constitutes an "adverse interest": An attorney's lien against a client's future recovery to secure hourly legal fees (so-called "charging lien") is an "adverse interest" requiring compliance with CRPC 3-300, even where the lien is created as part of the initial fee agreement. [Fletcher v. Davis (2004) 33 C4th 61, 69, 14 CR3d 58, 64:]

Discussion re: Spoliation Claim

Damon Abnos' Claim for Negligence in the Handling of the Spoliation Issue

Pertinent Established Facts

1. Damon Abnos maintained all his pre and post marriage business and personal records in file boxes at his home in Missouri.

2. The documents contained in the file boxes were necessary to establish Damon's claim for reimbursement and/or apportionment regarding the distribution of the marital property assets.

3. Lori Abnos' parents removed all the file boxes from Damon's home without Damon's consent.

1 4. Seltzer Caplan was made aware that the file boxes were taken by Lori Abnos' parents.

2 5. Damon Abnos was unable to examine any of the documents which were in the file
3 boxes for over two months from the date they were taken. When he did examine the documents,
4 he told Seltzer Caplan that all of his pre-marital documents were missing.

5 6. Seltzer Caplan knew that Lori Abnos did not have Damon's permission to remove the 6 boxes.

7 7. Seltzer Caplan told Damon that his claims could not be proven in the absence of the 8 now-missing documents.

9 8. Seltzer Caplan "considered" "addressing" the spoliation issue.

10 9. Seltzer Caplan failed to address the spoliation issue.

11 10. Seltzer Caplan knew in January that Lori Abnos had wrongfully taken and destroyed
12 Damon's evidence. From January through the following October, Seltzer Caplan continued to 13 represent Damon.

14 11. Seltzer Caplan never brought the spoliation issue to the Court's or Special Master's 15 attention.

16 12. Seltzer Caplan could have brought a motion to estop Lori Abnos from arguing the 17 characterization issue or to shift the burden of proof.

18 13. Seltzer Caplan never brought the motions.

19 14. Seltzer Caplan never deposed Lori or her parents.

20 15. The unavailability of the documents caused Damon to lose his claims to 21 reimbursement and apportionment.

22 16. All of the post-marriage assets were obtained through the pre-marriage sources. The 23 pre-marriage sources had a value in excess of $500,000.00. (For purposes of this Arbitration,
24 Damon is limiting his claim on this issue to $500,000.00.) (Damon's uncontroverted 25 testimony as to the value of his pre-marital assets clearly established a value in excess of 26 $500,000.00)

27 17. Damon effectively lost the entire $500,000.00 in reimbursement and or 28 apportionment due to his inability to provide the documents stolen by Lori Abnos and her

1 parents.

2 Argument

3 Seltzer Caplan should have immediately brought action based upon the spoliation of 4 evidence. Among other things, the destruction of evidence is a misdemeanor in this state and a
5 violation of the initial orders restraining each party from harming the other or their property.

6 Seltzer Caplan should have emphasized the importance of the documents and the 7 uncontroverted fact that Lori Abnos directed her parents to break into Damon's home in
8 Missouri while Damon was in Hawaii and to take between 30-40 file boxes with all Damon's 9 records.

10 Seltzer Caplan should have immediately demanded return of all the boxes and should 11 have immediately taken steps to protect their client. Instead, they sat back and did nothing to 12 address the spoliation.

13 If Seltzer Caplan had immediately presented the facts to the Court and sought an order to 14 immediately return the files and boxes, there is no doubt that such an order would have been 15 issued.

16 If Lori disobeyed the order, evidentiary sanctions would certainly have followed.

17 If Lori obeyed the order but Damon could then prove that all of his pre-marital 18 documents were destroyed, a motion to either estop Lori from arguing that issue or a motion to 19 shift the burden would just as certainly have been granted.

20 Once Damon's position relative to the establishment of the character of the assets and the 21 tracing was secure, a more appropriate settlement and distribution of the assets would likely have 22 followed. In any event, Damon would have been entitled to claim the entire $500,000.00 which 23 Lori would then be unable to refute.

24 By failing to immediately take action relative to the spoliation, Seltzer Caplan sent a 25 clear message to Lori's attorney that they were unwilling to fight for Damon. By failing to take
26 action immediately, Seltzer Caplan severely weakened Damon's argument as to the importance
27 of the documents and clearly hamstrung Damon on the settlement.
28

1 By coming to the arbitration and having their expert opine that such a motion can be
2 brought at any time; even at the time of trial, simply emphasizes the lackadaisical attitude
3 Seltzer Caplan exhibited in the representation of their client. When Mr. Ludmer asked "Are we 4 going to hear about the goat camps?" Seltzer Caplan's attitude and message was loud and clear.
5 I guess people of Iranian descent are less entitled to justice than others. I guess someone who 6 has been in a goat camp just isn't worth protecting or defending. The slur was not just 7 inappropriate; it was telling.

8 Seltzer Caplan came to the arbitration and told the Arbitrator that Damon wanted them to 9 stop work but they didn't think he was serious so they went forward. They told the Arbitrator
10 when Damon wanted Lori's deposition taken and action taken about the boxes, they didn't think
11 it would be conducive to settlement so they decided not to. They billed thousands on motions
12 that were wastes of time and took no action on the most important property issue. Essentially,
13 they paid little or no attention to Damon's concerns. After all, he is just someone from a goat
14 camp.

15 THE ARBITRATION

16 Throughout the arbitration process, plaintiff was denied access to discovery and an equal
17 opportunity to present his case. The arbitrator refused to honor plaintiff's requests for a brief
18 continuance to allow him to attend the arbitration hearing. The arbitrator then allowed the 19 plaintiff an opportunity to appear on a Sunday to present his side.

21 When the plaintiff, a man of Iranian descent, was asked to briefly relate his history and 22 his personal efforts which formed the basis for his business successes, defense counsel asked 23 "Are we going to hear about the goat camp?". Plaintiff was flabbergasted. The arbitrator took 24 little apparent notice and allowed the matter to continue although plaintiff was clearly and 25 obviously distraught. The vile and racist comment by defense counsel (an associate with the 26 defendant lawfirm) created an air of contempt over the entire proceeding.

27 The arbitrator then virtually ignored everything the plaintiff had to say. The arbitrator
28 ignored the evidence and the billing statement provided by defendants themselves. The

1 arbitrator even awarded interest on the full amount now claimed despite the plain and
 2 uncontroverted admission by the defendant that the bill had been reduced to $16,471.27.
 3 Additionally, the arbitrator refused to award any money to the plaintiff for the wrongful assertion
 4 of the lien despite the fact that there was no defense. The arbitrator simply ruled that the 5 plaintiff didn't prove that he had access to the money at the time! This makes no sense.

6 The arbitrator awarded the defendants every dime they charged, even though the 7 defendants admitted that there were some double billings and even though defendants
 8 specifically credited their own bill! This is just not rational.

9 LEGAL ARGUMENT

10 A. The Applicable Standard

11 Under the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"), a court must vacate an arbitration
 12 award where: (1) the award was procured by fraud, corruption, or other undue means; (2) 13 there was evident partiality or corruption by the arbitrators; (3) the arbitrators were 14 guilty of misconduct in refusing to postpone the hearing or hear the evidence, or other 15 misbehavior which violate the rights of the parties; or (4) the arbitrators exceeded their 16 power or so imperfectly executed them that a mutual, final, and definite award was not
 17 made. With respect to the final category, the Ninth Circuit has recognized that arbitrators
 18 "exceed their power" if the award rendered is "completely irrational, or exhibits a 19 manifest disregard of the law." (Schoendube Corp. v. Lucent Technologies, Inc., 442 F.3d 20 727, 731 (9th Cir. 2006).) (Emphasis added) Accordingly, an arbitration award should be 21 vacated on the grounds that it exhibits a manifest disregard of the law where it is "clear 22 from the record that the arbitrators recognized the applicable law and then ignored it."
 23 (Luong v. Circuit City Stores, Inc., 368 F.3d 1109, 1112 (9th Cir. 2004) (quoting Mich.
 24 Mut. Ins. Co. v. Unigard Sec. Ins. Co., 44 F.3d 826, 832 (9th Cir. 1995).)

25 The Arbitrator Exceeded Her Power And Her Award Must Be Vacated

26 Arbitrators are not empowered to ignore the law and dispense their own brand of 27 justice. (American Postal Workers Union AFL-CIP v. U.S. Postal Serv., 682 F.2d 1280 28 (9th Cir. 1982); Freightliner, LLC v. Teamsters Local 305, 336 F.Supp.2d 1118 (D. Or.

1 2004); Montes v. Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc., 128 F.3d 1456 (11th Cir. 1997).) This
2 arbitral maxim was lost on the Arbitrator here. Rather than apply established legal
3 principles of which she was well aware, the Arbitrator simply chose to ignore the law,
4 instead pronouncing and applying her own rule of equity. When arbitrators impermissibly
5 ignore established legal principles in favor of reaching what is, in their unique view, a
6 more equitable result, their awards are subject to being vacated. (American Postal, supra,
7 682 F.2d 1380 (9th Cir. 1982); Freightliner, supra, 336 F.Supp.2d 1118 (D. Or. 2004);
8 Montrs, supra, 128 F.3d 1456 (11th Cir. 1997).)

9 Regarding the unauthorized charging lien, there was uncontroverted evidence that 10 the lien was invalid and that the invalid lien tied up $85,000 of plaintiff's money for 11
11 months. The arbitrator simply ignored the law and refused to compensate the plaintiff for 12 the loss of use of the money.

13 Regarding the billings claimed; the Arbitrator ignored the clear admissions of fact 14 by the defendant that the last billing statement presented to the plaintiff was for 15 $16,417.27. Their own billing statement credited the plaintiff's account by $59,770.04
16 and the Arbitrator ignored this undisputed fact. The Arbitrator awarded over $76,000 in 17 fees and tacked on interest at 10% per annum from the date of the last bill. How could she 18 possibly allow a greater recovery than the billing statement? How could she possibly 19 allow interest on $76,000 when the billing statement itself carried a balance of 20 $16,417.27? The award was clearly not based upon the law or the facts. The award
21 seems to have a lot more to do with where the plaintiff came from as opposed to the facts
22 and circumstances of the case. When the Arbitrator simply brushed off the "goat camps"
23 statement as no big deal, it became apparent that the plaintiff's words were to fall upon 24 deaf ears.

25 Although the defendant admitted to taking no action whatsoever concerning the 26 wife's destruction of the documents; even though they continued to represent the plaintiff
27 for more than 10 months thereafter, the Arbitrator's attitude was akin to "oh well". The 28 argument that some other lawyer could have argued the issue at some later date just does

1 not absolve the defendant from liability for failing to handle the issue as soon as it arose.
 2 The delay by over 10 months in addressing the issue was devastating to the plaintiff. The 3 defendants admitted that the loss of the documents was a critical blow to the plaintiff's
 4 chances; yet they did nothing about it! The Arbitrator inexplicably decided that since
 5 some other attorney could have done it later on, the defendant was off the hook. The 6 Arbitrator, once again, ignored the law and completely disregarded the uncontroverted
 7 evidence.

8 The Arbitrator Manifestly Disregarded California's Rules of Professional
 9 Conduct As They Pertain To Conflicts of Interest

10 The Arbitrator manifestly disregarded California law as it pertains to conflict
 11 waivers. As licensed attorneys in California, defendants were supposed to be aware of 12 California's Rules of Professional Conduct ("CRPC") as they pertain to conflict waivers
 13 specifically pertaining to charging liens. It is undisputed that the defendants failed to 14 follow the rules and that the charging lien was invalid and the Arbitrator still did nothing
 15 about it. The Arbitrator's decision to ignore basic principles of law pertaining to 16 conflict waivers furnishes additional grounds for vacating the award. (See Luong v.
 17 Circuit City Stores, Inc., 368 F.3d 826, 832 (9th Cir. 1995) (An Award should be vacated 18 on the grounds that it exhibits a manifest disregard of the law where it is "clear from the 19 record that the arbitrator recognized the applicable law and then ignored it."))

20 The Arbitrators Ultimate Conclusion Is "Completely Irrational"
 21 Given Unrefuted Facts Of Which The Arbitrator Was Advised

22 In addition to illogically adding $59,779.04 back into defendants' bill after 23 defendants had admittedly credited the account and then awarding interest on the full 24 $76,000; refusing to award interest to plaintiff for the loss of use of the money 25 notwithstanding the clearly and undisputedly invalid lien which undisputedly tied up the 26 money for 11 months; and letting the defendant off the hook on the spoliation issue 27 because someone else could have brought the motion more than one year after the 28

1 fact should be vacated on the ground that it is "completely irrational." (See Schoendube
2 Corp. v. Lucent Technologies, Inc., 442 F.3d 727, 731 (9th Cir. 2006) (An award must be
3 vacated if it is "completely irrational."))

5 CONCLUSION

6 The Arbitration award should be vacated for the reasons set forth herein.

AWARD OF ARBITRATOR

I, THE UNDERSIGNED ARBITRATOR, having been designated in accordance with the arbitration agreement entered into between and signed by Attorney Lee E. Hejmanowski on behalf of Claimant and Cross-Respondent Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek on November 19, 2003 and Respondent and Cross-Claimant Damon Abnos on November 27, 2003, and having been duly sworn and having duly heard the proofs and allegations of the Parties, and the arguments of counsel, hereby present this REASONED ARBITRATION AWARD as follows:

In the Agreement re Legal Services and Fees (hereafter "Retainer Agreement"), which contained the arbitration agreement referred to above, the law firm of Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek (hereafter "Law Firm") was retained to represent Damon Abnos in the underlying marital dissolution proceeding (In re the Marriage of Petitioner Lori Abnos and Respondent Damon Abnos, San Diego Superior Court Case No. D 480250.). Lee E. Hejmanowski was the Law Firm attorney who represented Mr. Abnos in the dissolution proceeding.

BREACH OF CONTRACT

In the Retainer Agreement, Mr. Abnos agreed to pay Attorney Hejmanowski's hourly rate, and the hourly rates of the Law Firm personnel who worked on the dissolution action under his supervision, in addition to the costs advanced by the Law Firm. It also stated that he would be sent detailed monthly statements, which would be due and payable monthly, and any balance that was unpaid 45 days from the date of the statement would incur a 10% "late fee" per annum.

Claimant Law Firm is suing Respondent Abnos for breach of contract for failure to pay $75,393.37 for legal services plus 10% interest per annum. The detailed billing statements were admitted into evidence. Mr. Abnos' last payment of $10,000 was reflected on the June 11, 2004 statement.

The billing statements support the Law Firm's position that Mr. Abnos failed to pay $75,393.37 in billed legal fees and reimbursable costs as of the last statement dated November 18, 2004. The last date of services was October 14, 2004. The interest on this amount at 10% per annum would be $7,539.34 for 2005, $8,293.27 for 2006 and $9,122.60 for 2007. The total amount of unpaid legal fees, reimbursable costs and interest at the end of 2007 was $100,348.58.

Mr. Abnos does not allege that the billing statements are inaccurate or that the hourly rates charged for the legal fees are excessive. He makes the following contentions:

1. On its' final bill, the Law Firm wrote off $59,779.04. Consequently, the balance due to the Law Firm is only $16,417.27, before interest. Mr. Abnos is mistaken. This "write off" was only the Law Firm's offer to compromise. Mr. Abnos did not accept this offer to compromise. Consequently, $59,779.04 has not been written off by the Law Firm and the full $75,393.37 is still due and owing.
2. The Law Firm should not have made the Motion for Exclusive Management and Control of the Family Business or the Motion to Bifurcate Status, both of which were contested, and he should not have to pay the legal fees ($19,727.00 and $3,999.00, respectively) for making these motions. He also alleges that the Law Firm should not have calendared the management and control motion on the regular motion calendar because it was obviously complex and should have been calendared for a long cause hearing. Consequently, he should not have to pay the $1,402.00 in legal fees incurred in moving the motion. An attorney has the legal authority to make tactical and procedural decisions when representing clients. Furthermore, Mr. Abnos did not object to the making of these motions and he actively participated in them. He wanted to be divorced as soon as possible from Lori Abnos and he wanted to have the exclusive management and control of the family business. There was no churning or excessive fee generation in the making of these motions and Mr. Abnos was appropriately billed for them.
3. The billing statements contained $3,013.50 in legal fees that were excessive or represented double billing. There was billing for a very modest amount of legal research and what Mr. Abnos calls "double billing," communication between attorneys and staff. An examination of the billing shows that it was reasonable and necessary and should not be disallowed. Mr. Abnos was not overcharged for the legal services rendered.

Respondent Abnos breached his written contract with Claimant Law Firm when he failed to pay for all the legal services billed for representing him in the dissolution proceeding. Mr. Abnos owes Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek $100,348.58 plus 10% interest per annum from January 1, 2008 until paid in full.

The Law Firm's claim for quantum meruit for legal services rendered is moot.

LEGAL MALPRACTICE

While Mr. Abnos was in Hawaii in January 2004, his wife's parents forcefully entered the Kansas City residence and removed banker boxes containing financial documents. When he examined copies of documents given to him by his wife's attorney, the contents of the two boxes in her attorney's office and the contents of a large number of boxes still in the residence, he claimed that a number of documents were missing because they had been removed and that these documents would have allowed him to trace his separate property contributions to real estate purchased during the marriage. He alleges that if there had not been spoliation of these financial documents, he would have been able to show that he had at least $500,000 in separate property interest in assets that were found to be community property in the dissolution.

Cross-Claimant Abnos contends that his attorneys committed legal malpractice by not taking any action to compel return of these documents, including depositions, or by not attempting to obtain court orders for discovery evidentiary or issue sanctions for failure to return the documents.

The Law Firm represented Mr. Abnos until he substituted them out as his attorneys in mid-October 2004. A Special Master was appointed by the Court to hear the separate property issues and submit a report to the Court. The Special Masters Report, which was adopted by the Court, was signed by the Special Master on April 26, 2006 and filed by the Court on July 25, 2006.

During the Law Firm's representation of Mr. Abnos after the alleged spoliation of evidence, the parties were engaged in settlement discussions. Mr. Abnos wanted to reach a settlement. Attorney Lee Hejmanowski thought that it would be harmful to the settlement discussions to aggressively pursue the return of any documents that might have been taken, including the taking of depositions. It should be noted that Mr. Abnos' wife denied removing any financial records from the boxes. The Special Master did not hold the hearing on the separate property issues and write his report until 1½ years after the Law Firm ceased representing Mr. Abnos. There was ample time for one of Mr. Abnos' subsequent attorneys to pursue the spoliation issue before the separate property issues were heard by the Special Master and after settlement discussions had ended.

Mr. Abnos has failed to establish that the Law Firm breached the duty of care. It is counterproductive and can be very damaging to engage in aggressive litigation tactics when the parties are engaged in settlement discussions. There was a long period of time after settlement discussions had failed before the separate property issues were litigated when the spoliation issues could have been pursued. He has not sustained his burden of proof to establish that the Law Firm committed legal malpractice.

CONVERSION

Cross-Claimant Damon Abnos contends that the Law Firm's assertion of a lien for their unpaid legal fees on his money in the trust account of one of his subsequent attorneys is conversion. The lien on the trust account funds was asserted for eleven months and the trust account funds were never actually transmitted to the Law Firm. He alleges his damages are 10% interest for eleven months on the $85,000 in the attorney's trust account ($7,790.67) because he lost the use of the money in the trust account because of the lien.

No evidence was presented that Mr. Abnos had the right to possess the funds in the attorney's trust account at the time of the alleged conversion. Furthermore, the Law Firm never had access to, use of or control over the funds. Consequently, there was no conversion.

Cross-Claimant Damon Abnos withdrew his claim for breach of fiduciary duty during the hearing.

ARBITRATION AWARD

1. Respondent Damon Abnos shall pay to Claimant Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek for breach of contract for failure to pay legal fees the sum of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED FORTY-EIGHT DOLLARS AND FIFTY-EIGHT CENTS ($100,348.58).
2. Respondent shall also play to Claimant interest at the rate of 10% a year compounded annually from January 1, 2008 until the date this AWARD is satisfied.
3. Claimant Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek's claim for quantum meruit is hereby denied.
4. Cross-Claimant Damon Abnos' claims for Legal Malpractice and Conversion are hereby denied.
5. The administrative filing and case service fees of the American Arbitration Association ("the Association"), totaling $11,050.00, shall be borne as incurred.
6. The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator, totaling $11,545.57, shall be borne as incurred.
7. Each party shall bear their own attorney's fees and costs

This ARBITRATION AWARD is in full settlement of all claims and counterclaims submitted to this arbitration. All claims not expressly granted herein are hereby denied.

RE: AGREEMENT RE LEGAL SERVICES AND FEES
 Our File No. 08900.57529

Dear Mr. Abnos:

1. Engagement

The purpose of this agreement is to confirm the terms under which this firm will represent you in connection with marital dissolution proceedings between you and your spouse, Lori Abnos. As we discussed, if the child custody and visitation issues must be resolved in court, you may be required to retain additional attorneys to work with us on those issues, depending upon the other commitments of the attorneys in this firm who practice in those areas. We will revisit that subject with you later, if necessary.

2. Attorneys' Services, Fees and Costs

It is difficult to predict accurately the extent of legal services which this matter will require. We have therefore not made any prediction or commitment as to the total fee or the outcome of the matter. You have agreed to pay the usual fees charged from time to time by Lee E. Hejmanowski, Esq., and the persons in our firm who work on this matter under his supervision.

We will render monthly statements to you indicating the status of your account on a time-spent basis, calculated at the hourly rates of persons working on the matter which are in effect when the statements are rendered. Current hourly rates in the Family Law Department are:

Gerald L. McMahon	$485.00
Lee E. Hejmanowski	$310.00
Richard A. Clegg	$240.00
Linda Papst de Leon	$240.00
Amanda L. Kramer	$240.00
Angela A. Bassett	$175.00

Hourly rates for others, which vary according generally to levels of experience, are as follows: Senior members of the firm, $300 to $485; Associate and Of Counsel Attorneys, $150 to $425; Paralegals, $95 to $130; Law Clerks, $150 to $210; Word Processing, $40 to $55; and, Document Control Clerks, $25 to $40. Our hourly charges include time spent on the telephone, intake interviews and processing, performing legal research, conferring with persons who may have relevant information, negotiating for settlement and performing all other services on your behalf. If our firm adopts new usual hourly rates from time to time during the course of our representation, later services will be billed and payable at such rates. No new rates will be adopted before January 1, 2004.

Independent of and in addition to the fees for legal services to be rendered on your behalf, it may be necessary for this firm to incur costs and advance sums for items such as filing fees, process service fees, deposition transcripts, photocopying (at 20 cents per page if done in-house), expert witness fees, investigator's fees, long-distance telephone charges, telefax transmission and receipt charges (at $1 per page), travel expenses and other charges. We may request that such costs be advanced by you; however, to the extent that our firm advances such costs on your behalf, it is understood that you will reimburse us monthly and hold us harmless from liability for these costs. Certain vendors may be billing you directly for services performed at our request. We will identify all such vendors to you in advance.

3. Billing Statements and Retainer(s)

We will send you detailed monthly statements indicating the current status of your account, both for services rendered and for costs advanced. The statements will show the date of each service performed, who performed it, the time expended and rate charged. The statements will be due and payable in full monthly, upon receipt. A late charge of 10% per annum will be assessed on the portion of your account owing for both services performed and costs advanced remaining unpaid for more than 45 days after the date of any statement.

We require that you deposit with us an initial sum of $10,000 as a retainer to be deposited in our clients' trust account. (In fact, you have already presented us with a check in that amount.) All such funds not used will be returned to you after a reasonable time has passed to make sure all billings are paid. At a minimum, this would be at least one complete billing cycle after completion of the matter. By your execution and return to us of the enclosed copy of this letter, you will be authorizing and instructing us to deposit your retainer check in our clients' trust account and to disburse proceeds of such check incrementally to our firm to apply to fees and/or costs which our firm may advance or incur. Disbursements will be made automatically to pay amounts that will be shown on our monthly statements. Any time the amount deposited to your credit in our clients' trust account falls below $2,000 (or such other sum as we may designate from time to time), you must deposit at least another $10,000 (or such other sum as we may designate from time to time) in the trust account so that the account will always have a credit balance in your favor from which we can make disbursements. Any unused portion of the additional deposit(s) will also be refunded to you as set forth above. If you choose not to deposit the additional retainer funds, we have the right to terminate this engagement and withdraw as your counsel of record. In addition to that right, if the amount deposited to your credit in our clients' trust account reaches a zero balance, we will be entitled to discontinue work on this matter and withdraw as your counsel. If we continue working on your matter(s), you will remain responsible for paying for our services and costs advanced and/or incurred.

To the extent you are indebted to this firm for fees and/or costs incurred, this firm shall have a lien on all monies and property which are awarded to you by the court, or obtained by negotiation.

Provisions of this agreement may be disclosed to the court in connection with any application for payment of fees and costs. We may also advise the court of any amounts we have received on account from you.

To minimize attorneys' fees and costs, we will try to effect a reasonable settlement agreement, which will avoid a trial. If settlement efforts are not successful and trial is required, the fees and costs will necessarily be increased, and a separate fee agreement and retainer may be required.

We reserve the right to withdraw from the matter if you do not make the payments required by this agreement, if you have misrepresented or failed to disclose material facts to us, or if you choose not to follow our advice. You also retain the right to terminate this firm as your attorneys of record at any time and for any reason, in which case we ask to be so advised in writing. In either event, you would be responsible for the fees and costs to date of withdrawal or termination.

4. Arbitration Provision

Concurrently with this Agreement, you agree to and enter into the Arbitration Agreement attached as Exhibit "A", by which you and this firm agree that any controversy, claim or dispute which arises from or relates to this agreement or services rendered or to be rendered by this firm (including its attorneys and employees) shall be determined exclusively by submission to mandatory, binding arbitration, instead of by a lawsuit or resort to court action.

5. Other Provisions

A dissolution of marriage proceeding is one of those events that should induce a review of one's estate plan. We have attorneys in our firm who specialize in the field of estate planning. If you wish, we can set an appointment for you to discuss the topic.

Once our file has been closed, we will not perform any services on your behalf concerning this matter. Thereafter, unless otherwise requested and agreed in writing, we will not notify you of changes in the law which may affect you or your interests with respect to this matter.

No change, waiver or modification of any of the provisions of this agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by our firm. This letter contains our entire agreement concerning the services we will be performing and our compensation for such services and costs. We have made no representations or promises other than those expressly set forth in this agreement.

Should you ask us to render additional legal services of the same general kind as requested by you in this matter, and should we agree to undertake them, and if no new written fee agreement is entered into, the terms and conditions of this agreement shall control our engagement for any such additional services.

Additionally, we wish to advise you that it is the policy of our firm to destroy papers in files any time after ten years from the conclusion of a matter. If for any reason you wish to preserve any of the records or files from this matter, please request them from our office well before this time period elapses.

To confirm our agreement under the terms and conditions set forth above, please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter to us on or before November 25, 2003.

We look forward to working with you.

EXHIBIT "A"ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

THE UNDERSIGNED AGREE THAT ANY AND ALL CONTROVERSIES, CLAIMS OR DISPUTES (COLLECTIVELY "DISPUTES") WHICH ARISE FROM OR RELATE TO THE ENGAGEMENT OF, OR SERVICES RENDERED OR TO BE RENDERED BY, SELTZER CAPLAN McMAHON VITEK (INCLUDING ITS ATTORNEYS AND EMPLOYEES) (COLLECTIVELY "THE LAW FIRM") SHALL BE DETERMINED EXCLUSIVELY BY SUBMISSION TO MANDATORY, BINDING ARBITRATION, INSTEAD OF BY A LAWSUIT OR RESORT TO COURT ACTION. SUCH DISPUTES SHALL INCLUDE, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DISPUTES AS TO FEES, COSTS OR PROFESSIONAL MALPRACTICE (THAT IS, AS TO WHETHER ANY LEGAL SERVICES RENDERED WERE UNNECESSARY OR UNAUTHORIZED OR WERE IMPROPERLY, NEGLIGENCELY OR INCOMPETENTLY RENDERED).

BY ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT THE PARTIES ARE GIVING UP THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS TO HAVE ANY SUCH DISPUTES DECIDED IN A COURT OF LAW BEFORE A JURY, AND INSTEAD ARE ACCEPTING THE USE OF ARBITRATION. ACCORDINGLY, DAMON ABNOS ("CLIENT") IS ADVISED TO OBTAIN THE ADVICE OF INDEPENDENT COUNSEL BEFORE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

ANY ARBITRATION PROCEEDING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE CONDUCTED IN SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA. SUCH PROCEEDING SHALL BE ADMINISTERED BY THE AMERICAN ARBITRATION ASSOCIATION ("AAA") UNDER THE AAA'S COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION RULES AND MEDIATION PROCEDURES; AND, IF APPLICABLE, UNDER THE AAA'S SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEDURES FOR CONSUMER-RELATED DISPUTES ("CONSUMER RULES") AND CONSUMER DUE PROCESS PROTOCOL ("PROTOCOL"). THE CLIENT AND THE LAW FIRM SHALL CAUSE A SINGLE ARBITRATOR TO BE SELECTED AND SHALL SHARE EQUALLY THE ARBITRATOR'S FEES AND THE AAA'S ADMINISTRATIVE FEES; EXCEPT, WHERE THE CONSUMER RULES AND THE PROTOCOL APPLY, THEY SHALL BE FOLLOWED WITH RESPECT TO SUCH FEES. THE ARBITRATOR'S DECISION SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE, FINAL AND BINDING UPON THE PARTIES.

THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA PERTAINING TO BINDING ARBITRATION ALSO SHALL APPLY, AND JUDGMENT ON THE ARBITRATOR'S DECISION MAY BE ENTERED IN ANY COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION. NEITHER PARTY MAY SEEK AN APPEAL OR

and
Damon Abnos

Dear Counsel:

By direction of the Arbitrator we herewith transmit to you the duly executed Award in the above matter. This serves as a reminder that there is to be no direct communication with the Arbitrator. All communication shall be directed to the Association.

At this time we have verified with the arbitrators that they have submitted all requests for compensation and expenses in this matter. Accordingly, we have conducted a final reconciliation of the finances and are providing each party with a Financial History and Compensation Summary. If a party had any unused compensation deposits, we have issued a refund check that should arrive in the mail shortly. If a party has an outstanding balance, that party will continue to receive cyclical invoices until the balance is paid.

Note that the financial reconciliation reflects costs as they were incurred during the course of the proceeding. Any apportionment of these costs by the arbitrator, pursuant to the Rules, will be addressed in the award and will be stated as one party's obligation to reimburse the other party for costs incurred. Any outstanding balances the parties may have with the AAA for the costs incurred during the arbitration proceedings remain due and payable to the AAA even after the final award is issued, and regardless of the arbitrator's apportionment of these costs between the parties in the award.

Please note that the case file will be destroyed fifteen (15) months after the date of this letter.

We appreciate your selection of the AAA as your alternative dispute resolution provider in this matter.

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

AWARD OF ARBITRATOR

I, THE UNDERSIGNED ARBITRATOR, having been designated in accordance with the arbitration agreement entered into between and signed by Attorney Lee E. Hejmanowski on behalf of Claimant and Cross-Respondent Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek on November 19, 2003 and Respondent and Cross-Claimant Damon Abnos on November 27, 2003, and having been duly sworn and having duly heard the proofs and allegations of the Parties, and the arguments of counsel, hereby present this REASONED ARBITRATION AWARD as follows:

In the Agreement re Legal Services and Fees (hereafter "Retainer Agreement"), which contained the arbitration agreement referred to above, the law firm of Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek (hereafter "Law Firm") was retained to represent Damon Abnos in the underlying marital dissolution proceeding (In re the Marriage of Petitioner Lori Abnos and Respondent Damon Abnos, San Diego Superior Court Case No. D 480250.). Lee E. Hejmanowski was the Law Firm attorney who represented Mr. Abnos in the dissolution proceeding.

BREACH OF CONTRACT

In the Retainer Agreement, Mr. Abnos agreed to pay Attorney Hejmanowski's hourly rate, and the hourly rates of the Law Firm personnel who worked on the dissolution action under his supervision, in addition to the costs advanced by the Law Firm. It also stated that he would be sent detailed monthly statements, which would be due and payable monthly, and any balance that was unpaid 45 days from the date of the statement would incur a 10% "late fee" per annum.

Claimant Law Firm is suing Respondent Abnos for breach of contract for failure to pay $75,393.37 for legal services plus 10% interest per annum. The detailed billing statements were admitted into evidence. Mr. Abnos' last payment of $10,000 was reflected on the June 11, 2004 statement.

The billing statements support the Law Firm's position that Mr. Abnos failed to pay $75,393.37 in billed legal fees and reimbursable costs as of the last statement dated November 18, 2004. The last date of services was October 14, 2004. The interest on this amount at 10% per annum would be $7,539.34 for 2005, $8,293.27 for 2006 and $9,122.60 for 2007. The total amount of unpaid legal fees, reimbursable costs and interest at the end of 2007 was $100,348.58.

Mr. Abnos does not allege that the billing statements are inaccurate or that the hourly rates charged for the legal fees are excessive. He makes the following contentions:

1. On its' final bill, the Law Firm wrote off $59,779.04. Consequently, the balance due to the Law Firm is only $16,417.27, before interest. Mr. Abnos is mistaken. This "write off" was only the Law Firm's offer to compromise. Mr. Abnos did not accept this offer to compromise. Consequently, $59,779.04 has not been written off by the Law Firm and the full $75,393.37 is still due and owing.
2. The Law Firm should not have made the Motion for Exclusive Management and Control of the Family Business or the Motion to Bifurcate Status, both of which were contested, and he should not have to pay the legal fees ($19,727.00 and $3,999.00, respectively) for making these motions. He also alleges that the Law Firm should not have calendared the management and control motion on the regular motion calendar because it was obviously complex and should have been calendared for a long cause hearing. Consequently, he should not have to pay the $1,402.00 in legal fees incurred in moving the motion. An attorney has the legal authority to make tactical and procedural decisions when representing clients. Furthermore, Mr. Abnos did not object to the making of these motions and he actively participated in them. He wanted to be divorced as soon as possible from Lori Abnos and he wanted to have the exclusive management and control of the family business. There was no churning or excessive fee generation in the making of these motions and Mr. Abnos was appropriately billed for them.
3. The billing statements contained $3,013.50 in legal fees that were excessive or represented double billing. There was billing for a very modest amount of legal research and what Mr. Abnos calls "double billing," communication between attorneys and staff. An examination of the billing shows that it was reasonable and necessary and should not be disallowed. Mr. Abnos was not overcharged for the legal services rendered.

Respondent Abnos breached his written contract with Claimant Law Firm when he failed to pay for all the legal services billed for representing him in the dissolution proceeding. Mr. Abnos owes Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek $100,348.58 plus 10% interest per annum from January 1, 2008 until paid in full.

The Law Firm's claim for quantum meruit for legal services rendered is moot.

LEGAL MALPRACTICE

While Mr. Abnos was in Hawaii in January 2004, his wife's parents forcefully entered the Kansas City residence and removed banker boxes containing financial documents. When he examined copies of documents given to him by his wife's attorney, the contents of the two boxes in her attorney's office and the contents of a large number of boxes still in the residence, he claimed that a number of documents were missing because they had been removed and that these documents would have allowed him to trace his separate property contributions to real estate purchased during the marriage. He alleges that if there had not been spoliation of these financial documents, he would have been able to show that he had at least $500,000 in separate property interest in assets that were found to be community property in the dissolution.

Cross-Claimant Abnos contends that his attorneys committed legal malpractice by not taking any action to compel return of these documents, including depositions, or by not attempting to obtain court orders for discovery evidentiary or issue sanctions for failure to return the documents.

The Law Firm represented Mr. Abnos until he substituted them out as his attorneys in mid-October 2004. A Special Master was appointed by the Court to hear the separate property issues and submit a report to the Court. The Special Masters Report, which was adopted by the Court, was signed by the Special Master on April 26, 2006 and filed by the Court on July 25, 2006.

During the Law Firm's representation of Mr. Abnos after the alleged spoliation of evidence, the parties were engaged in settlement discussions. Mr. Abnos wanted to reach a settlement. Attorney Lee Haljmanowski thought that it would be harmful to the settlement discussions to aggressively pursue the return of any documents that might have been taken, including the taking of depositions. It should be noted that Mr. Abnos' wife denied removing any financial records from the boxes. The Special Master did not hold the hearing on the separate property issues and write his report until 1½ years after the Law Firm ceased representing Mr. Abnos. There was ample time for one of Mr. Abnos' subsequent attorneys to pursue the spoliation issue before the separate property issues were heard by the Special Master and after settlement discussions had ended.

Mr. Abnos has failed to establish that the Law Firm breached the duty of care. It is counterproductive and can be very damaging to engage in aggressive litigation tactics when the parties are engaged in settlement discussions. There was a long period of time after settlement discussions had failed before the separate property issues were litigated when the spoliation issues could have been pursued. He has not sustained his burden of proof to establish that the Law Firm committed legal malpractice.

CONVERSION

Cross-Claimant Damon Abnos contends that the Law Firm's assertion of a lien for their unpaid legal fees on his money in the trust account of one of his subsequent attorneys is conversion. The lien on the trust account funds was asserted for eleven months and the trust account funds were never actually transmitted to the Law Firm. He alleges his damages are 10% interest for eleven months on the $85,000 in the attorney's trust account ($7,790.67) because he lost the use of the money in the trust account because of the lien.

No evidence was presented that Mr. Abnos had the right to possess the funds in the attorney's trust account at the time of the alleged conversion. Furthermore, the Law Firm never had access to, use of or control over the funds. Consequently, there was no conversion.

Cross-Claimant Damon Abnos withdrew his claim for breach of fiduciary duty during the hearing.

ARBITRATION AWARD

1. Respondent Damon Abnos shall pay to Claimant Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek for breach of contract for failure to pay legal fees the sum of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED FORTY-EIGHT DOLLARS AND FIFTY-EIGHT CENTS ($100,348.58).
2. Respondent shall also pay to Claimant interest at the rate of 10% a year compounded annually from January 1, 2008 until the date this AWARD is satisfied.
3. Claimant Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek's claim for quantum meruit is hereby denied.
4. Cross-Claimant Damon Abnos' claims for Legal Malpractice and Conversion are hereby denied.
5. The administrative filing and case service fees of the American Arbitration Association ("the Association"), totaling $11,050.00, shall be borne as incurred.
6. The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator, totaling $11,545.57, shall be borne as incurred.
7. Each party shall bear their own attorney's fees and costs

This ARBITRATION AWARD is in full settlement of all claims and counterclaims submitted to this arbitration. All claims not expressly granted herein are hereby denied.
